Mr ohnson delivered an interesting lecture, in a fluent and eloquent manner. To-night he will lecture on the "Manufacturers of Intox-icating Laquors." All are invited to attend.

-It is questionable propriety to call out an actor or actress who, just before the curtain dropped, enacted a death-scene. To enjoy a realistic piece of acting which closes with death, and then to have that mental enjoy-ment rudely broken into by seeing the dead come to life, and beholding him or her, as it may be, bowing and scraping to the applause of the audience in a few seconds, is not exactly in keeping with the proprieties of the dramatic business. To our mind, responding to such calls is a custom more honored in the breach than the obse-vance.

-A "Student of the Eastern Question" asks why the Black sea is spoken of as the highway to India? It is because of the road from Trebizond through Persia to the Indian frontiers, and of the facility of access from that point to the Euphrates, and thence over-land by rail or otherwise to India. Russia is determined to possess India, sooner or later, and it is England's knowledge of that fact which starts into activity her decrepid old bones at this time.

The decision obtained by us is as follows: "A farmer or planter who simply supplies his employes with what manufactured tobacco they need for their own personal use and for their special accommodation, and not with a view to gain or profit to himself, is not re-garded as engaged in the business of selling manufactured tobacco, and would not be required to pay special tax for thus supplying his hired laborers with tobacco." -In the case of the Memphis and Little Rock railroad vs M. The injunction against John H. Freeman clerk of the superior court of Tennessee, is dissolved by this decision, and pursuant thereto the sale will be made as directed by said supreme court. This injunction was asked in order to restrain said Freeman from selling the local depot building and railroad track of the Memphis and Little Rock railroad company to satisfy a decree in favor of M. The following is the section specifying the rates to be charged; "That any railroad company, or the assignee, purchasers or managers thereof, doing business in this State, or which may hereafter do business in this State, shall not be authorized to receive more than one dollar and fifty cents for each bale of cotton transported one hundred miles or less; one dollar and fifty cents for each bale of cotton transported more than one hundred and fifty miles or less; two dollars for each bale of cotton transported one hundred and fifty and less than two hundred miles; two dollars and fifty cents for each bale of cotton transported more than two hundred and less than two hundred and fifty miles; three dollars for each bale of cotton transported more than two hundred and fifty and less than three hundred miles; three dollars and fifty cents for each bale of cotton trans ported more than three hundred and less than three hundred and fifty miles; provided, that this applies to cotton shipped from any point within this State, the distance herein contemplated being the distance from the point of shipment to the destination as expressed and required by the shipper. For the business who write more in the evening than during the day, an early dinner and a light supper will be found to be the most advantageous too much at the midday meal. The breakfast hour should be determined, in great measure, by the hour of rising, but, in any case, food should be partaken of before the material business of the day is commenced. This would save about for thousand dollars per annum to the city.

St. Louis, February 28.—A report comes from Walden, Missouri, that Robinson, one f the principals in the late vendetta there, has disappeared, and it is understood that he has been lynched. The trouble which led to the shooting grew out of an old family feud. The three M'Mullen brothers, Robinson and Sam Harris were playing cards, John Numbee was lying down in the saloon; one of the M'Mullens remarked that Number was going to be whipped before they left town. Numbee attempted to leave, when Frank M'Mullen assaulted him. He fired, killing every voter he speaks with becomes instantly his friend.
